

STARRY NIGHT!

We did it! Or, rather, THEY did it! The cast and crew did a fabulous job singing and telling the Christmas story. From painting the set, to building the stable, to putting on makeup and costumes, to getting all those cues and lines ready. Wow!

Our profound thanks to Angie Cozens, to her music team: Lee Holmes and Jess Hoskins; to the angels, shepherds, kings and commoners, and all the others who told the story so well. And, REALLY. Did you know there were cowboys at the manger?

Thank you to each of the Starry Night team.

POINSETTIA ORDERS – need to be in the office by noon tomorrow: your last chance to order. Instructions are on the form. The plants will decorate the sanctuary on December 23 and 24, and can be taken home after the Christmas Eve service.

OUR CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE – will be on Monday 24th of December at 6:00 p.m. Invite family and friends to join us for the Christmas story, carols, communion and candlelight.

WINDOWS -- You may have noticed Caladesi workers doing repairs this last week. They were replacing roof gutters that leaked during the hard rain Sunday December 9. While here, they fixed the windows of the classrooms, choir room and office. A few of the windows had leaked and those that weren't would leak in time. They replaced the old rotten wooden sills with concrete ones, with a Stucco finish. Hopefully by the time you read this all repairs will be done.

FENCES, NOT WALLS....

In case you wondered, we are in the process of moving the children's playground. The new fence defines the new space. The play yard opens off the children's classrooms, so children and adults will not need to cross a driveway to get to it.

The equipment will be repaired: eliminating rusty and jagged edges, then it will be moved into the new space. The new fence has been paid for with the Ruth Heineman Memorial Fund. The repairs to the equipment will be paid for with funds given in memory of Connie Doseck, who loved children!
